ICOLD: in Vietnam,
for Sustainable Development

For the first time in the history of ICOLD, the 19th Annual Meeting of the International Commission on Large Dams (ICOLD) was held in the beautiful city of Hanoi, one of the most rapid economic growths of ICOLD member and founder of the National Committee of Dams, in Vietnam. From May 27th to May 30th.

Over 300 delegates, including 100 from ICOLD member countries, gathered in Hanoi to discuss dam safety, sustainable development, and the role of women in the dam sector. The meeting was held in a state-of-the-art venue, the Phuc Hoa Convention Center, which is one of the largest and most modern convention centers in Vietnam. The meeting was attended by more than 300 people from 50 different countries, including representatives from ICOLD member countries and non-member countries. The meeting was a great success, and it was a pleasure to welcome everyone to Hanoi. The meeting was held in a beautiful city with a rich cultural heritage and a vibrant atmosphere. The meeting was a great opportunity for dam professionals from around the world to meet and share their experiences and knowledge.
